The Overland China Mail,

A WEEKLY JOURNAL FOR THE HOME MAIL,

TS PUBLISHED to suit the Departure of each English and French Mail Steamer for Europe. Formerly the Over-land issue was published fortnightly; but as it was deemed of special importance that a weekly budget of news should be prepared, it was decided to issue it weekly. Subscribers at Home, and those at the Coast Ports and in the interior, who find the Overland edition a convenient form of newspaper for their perusal, will welcome the change. The Overland China Mail, now a weekly compendium of news from the Far East, contains special Commercial intelli-gence, special tables of Shipping, and other information. The various Reports of Courts and Meetings, and all other news, are given in full as they appear in the Daily issue. The attention of Advertisers is directed to a weekly newspaper, which is circulated among old China 'hands' and others, both

WE beg to remind our readers of the people on the plea that he was watching six hours in the stocks at Yau-ma-titheir boats. THE Siam Advertiser mentions that a fine hotel in Hangkok is fast hastening to completion, and, our contemporary adds; a confectionery establishment is appearing in commodione form in its immediate vicinity. Siam progresses slowly, but for Wa hear that Mr G. Phillips, lately British Consul at Swatow, and now at home on leave, has been appointed Consul at Foochow in succession to Mr Sinclair.

Lf Ashing, who was charged at the Police Court some days ago with burglariously entering the house of Chan Afuk, a married woman, and stealing therefrom a hag containing four gold bangles, one gold hair pin, 18 gold buttons, two $10 gold pieces and two promissory notes for $100 each, the total value being $400, was convicted of being in possession of burglar's tools and was ordered to pay $30 or suffer 3 months' hard labour, there being no direct evidence to show that he stole the articles.

SPEAKING of the state of Tonkin, L'Avanir du Tonkin says General Jamont is at present on a tour of inspection on the Red River. The military information that our contemporary has received shows that brigandage is everywhere repressed, chased and tracked. H.K., C. & M. Steambout Co., Ltd., It is permissible to hope that the next campaign from October 1886 to March 1887 will see the definite destruction of the bands of thieves and brigands which profit by the sesson of the great heats to over-run the country and attempt to establish there their ancient proponderance. - The Delimitation Commission has arrived at Lan-kai.

> M. PAUL BERT has created in Tonkin a corps savant under the denomination of Bac-ki-han-lam-vien (Tonkin Academy), which will sit at Hanoi, and will have for its object the very general one of researching and collecting all that interests from any point of view the country of Toukin. It will undertake the conservation of monuments, initiate the Annamese in modern science, help forward the translation of European books in Annamese and translations of the dynastic annals of Tonkin into French, and in the formation of public libraries &c., &c. To be admitted the savates of Tonkin must be provided with the University grade of doctor (Cat-si and Tiend-si) or of licentiate (Cuu-nhon).

THE details of the riots in Chung-King, and the indiscriminate manner in which the rioters appear to have attacked all hationslities and destroyed their property, do not read very well after the very high assumptions of the Viceroy of Kwangtung. It is true that the riots at Chung-King are outside the sphere of H. E. Chang Chi-tung's jurisdiction; but from the tall language 1336 used by the Viceroy, it might have been supposed that every province of the Empire vied with the other in careful preservation of European and American life and earthenware (or household gods). We have no defence to make of the excesses committed by the French during the socalled 'reprisals,' or of the disturbances in the United States against the orderly Chinese immigrants. But it is, perhaps, somewhat premature for the Governor General of the Two Kwang to crack up the peaceloving proclivities of his countrymen.

We understand that a meeting of Council will he held shortly to discuss the advisable lity of opening the proceedings of the Finance Committee to the members of the Press. Until then it is unnecessary farther to enlarge on the subject. It appears to Menelaus, Stettin, Tungchow, July 6; UB, however, that some arrangement could easily be come to, under which all important votes and those questions which materially affect the public should be discussed in open Council, leaving the details to be dealt with or cut and dried as privately as need be. The clear principle is, that the voting of large sums of money, should not be made a foregone conclusion in private consultation previous to the vote being pected here on or about Friday morn- formally recorded in Council. The question as to whether any particular government servant is to be paid 75 cent or $1 axtra a month, may be discussed as secretly as the Government Offices will permit; but the good sense of the Excentive, apart from any outside pressure, ought to make easy any suggestion to discuss public questions in a public place.

Az the Police Court this morning before both Magistrates, Ip Ayeong was charged with spatching an earning from a young girl, Fing Aing, who was walking near Yau-ma-ti yesterday afternoon. The evidence of the girl was that the prisoner, slong with two other men, was standing behind her, and that the prisoner attempted to snatch a silver button, but failed. He The girl ran after them and called out thief. The prisoner then turned round and threetened her that if she called out he would kill her. Seeing some men coming the called out again and eventually the ma was arrested. The defendant's story was that he and another man went to see the exhibition at Tai Shik Po. The girl squeezed herself into the crowd and lost her earring, whereon she seized him and labour, with the first and last formight he ran. This story was contradicted by in solitary confinement and six hours in the the evidence, and the prisoner was sanstocks, for demanding money from boat tonced to 12 months hard labour and Says the Shanghai Courier :- We have been informed, and upon good authority, that the native washermen, that is, the actual workers, have struck on account of the action of the head mahermen, who have, it seems, employed more apprentices than the journeymen kulthts of the seapsuds approve of. Hence the difficulty, as the workmen think that if too many learn the business wages will go down. This may be so, but this is the fint intimation we have had of the fact that it requires an apprenticeship to learn how to destroy the clothes of foreigners. The work of the washerman does not appear to require any very special training, as it consits mainly in banging the soiled linen against a rock. Perhaps. though, it requires a peculiar knack to rip a garment up the back, or to strip it of buttons, artistically. At any event the workmen threaten to cease work if their demands are not complied with, and if they do the ward fix, as the laundry work of the Settlements is all done by the natives. Hongkong neighbours are better off, as they have a laundry company, but from the reports lately published this company is being worked at a loss. Evidently the number of native washermen is much in excess of those actually needed, and the addition of more to their ranks in the shape of apprentices has excited the ire of those already in the business. We hopefor the sake of cleanliness that this difficulty is amicably arranged, as in this hot weather it would be intolerable if clean linen was not to be had in abundance.

THE ANTI-MISSIONARY RIOTS IN OHUNGKING.

The Chungking correspondent of the Shanghai Mercury, writing on the 2nd instant, gives the following account of the disturbances at that place: - Yesterday occurred one of the worst riots that has taken place in this city for many years. The whole, city seems to have turned upside down, and fairly gone wild in the course of a few hours. On the 5th of the 5th moon there was a slight trouble at one of the missionary establishments, belonging to the American mission, known as the Foo Yin Tang. After that petitions were sent in to the Yamens requesting the magistrate to prohibit the missionaries from building on the ground they had purchased a few miles from the city; their petitions were rejected. Then numerous placards were posted ever the town denouncing missionaries of all Wong Aon, who was convicted of this creeds, especially those of the Foc Yin Interrupting the fungeucy was the ground upon which their petitions were based. There are also said to be other prominent Catholics similarly prepared for an attack. The officials seem to be powerless. Several arrests were made last evening, but they were released, the officials not during to offend military students at present; but after the examinations are over there will probably be a day of reckoning for some of them. The Hankow correspondent of the Shang-ai Courier sends the following:--Hankow, 12th July. The steamer Kiang-tung is in port. She brought down bad news from Chungking. The American missionaries gave great offence to the people by building some houses on the heights, and overtopping the native structures. For some time past the bad feeling has been increasing, and finally it culminated in the sacking and burning of the American mission. Then the English mission was destroyed in the same manner, afterwards the English Consul's (Mr was badly injured. Afterwards the rioters and absolutely destroyed everything. What enraged them most was. I believe, that when they first attacked the United States Missions, the Missionsries began firing on the people with revolvers. The mob it appears thereupon made up its mind for a general expulsion, or extermination of the missionaries. I hear that Father Angelo got a letter two days ago confirming the nows brought by the steamer.

I believe Mr Gardner, H. B. M.'s Consul is sending provisions by the steamer Alangtung to Ichang for the English Missionaries, who have, I presume, left Churcking and arrived at Ichaug.

LATER. The additional news is that on Sunday. C. T. Gardner, Esq., H. B. M.'s Consul here, received a despatch by special courier from Mr Bourne, the British Consular agent at Chungking. This despatch was to the effect that Mr Bourne had received three serious wounds, and that he and all the foreigners were residing at the Taotai's and Magistrate's Yamena. Mr Gardner, I hear, at once took the responsibility of recalling all those under British protection from Chungking, sending his despatch to Mr Bourne, through the Viceroy here, by special courier. Having done this Mr Gardner placed himself in telegraphic communication with the British Minister at Peking, and it is to be expected that Sir John Walsham will approve Mr Gardner's action. We cannot speak too highly of Mr Gardner's promptaction, liberality and forethought in this matter. He is sending stores up to Ichang by the Kianging, which leaves this evening, Monday, and ho is giving Mr Gregory, H. B.M.'s Consul at Ichang, power to draw on him for an unlimited amount to enable him to render assistance to all, irrespective of nationality, who may arrive at Ichang from Chungking.

I have heard translated a Chinese letter from Chungking. It states that the trouble arose in consequence of a conversation, in a Chinese hotel. between some military men, being overheard. Their talk related to the early deings of converts, and the
